BY-LAWS OF THE EASTERN STAR.

Sec. 25. Charges against a Patron or Master for any offense not growing out of the discharge of his or her official duties must be made to the Working Grand Patron, and if approved by him, he will fix a time for trial, and notify the Chapter with a copy of the charges and specifications, and require the Secretary of the Chapter to serve a copy upon the accused.

Sec. 26. In all cases relating to the trial of a Patron or Master by his or her Chapter, except as otherwise specified in these laws, the same proceedings must be had as in the trial of other members.

Sec. 27. All charges must be made in writing, copies of the party making them, specifying with reasonable certainty the character of the accusation, and the time and place of its commission, naming the names of witnesses. It shall be presented at a stated meeting, and a copy of the charges and specifications shall be read. The presiding officer shall then set a time for trial, and order the Secretary to serve upon the accused a copy of the charges, and notify him of the time set for trial.

Sec. 28. The Secretary may serve the notice either in person or by mail, but when sent by mail twenty days will be allowed for the accused to receive it, in addition to the ten days, and shall be sent in registered letters.

Sec. 29. The attendance of witnesses is ordered, and when they are members of the Order may be enforced by summons, which may be issued by the Secretary when ordered by the Master of the Chapter.

Sec. 30. At the time set for trial, if the accused fail to appear in person or by counsel, or his appearance before the trial is not satisfactory, the trial may continue the case to some other time, or a verdict may be rendered in default for the accused, and read and stand with the case as though the accused were present.

Sec. 31. Should the accused appear and plead guilty to the charges, and the allegations, no further evidence is necessary, and the Chapter shall at once render a verdict to affirm the penalty.

Sec. 32. Any affiliated member of the Order may act as witness for the accused in the Chapter.

Sec. 33. All charges must be heard and tried in the Chapter, in which case this be not a violation.

Sec. 34. The accused, since in trial, shall be allowed to make an appeal, and growing out of his or her case.

Sec. 35. After the evidence shall have been introduced, and the prosecution and defendant, by themselves or counsel, have had an opportunity of being heard, the presiding officer shall order the Chapter shall proceed to decide by taking a separate ballot upon each charge, and specification, and whether the accused is guilty or not guilty of the same, and if found guilty by a majority of the votes cast, that to fix the penalty, commencing with the highest grade, and so on down until some definite determination.

Sec. 36. Should a minute report be rendered upon the case, the time shall be fixed upon in case, but the longest time shall be a week in a trial.

Sec. 37. Should the Chapter decline by a majority vote to affirm any penalty,
